Re: Calcano v. Domino's Pizza, Inc.
1:19-cv-9823 (GHW)

Dear Judge Woods:

DLA Piper LLP (US) represents Defendant Domino's Pizza, Inc. ("Defendant") in the above-referenced matter. We write, jointly with Plaintiff's counsel, to respectfully request an adjournment of the initial conference, currently scheduled on February 18, 2020.

The Parties apologize for not filing a joint letter or proposed case management plan yesterday, February 11, 2020. Defendant intends to file a pre-motion conference letter tomorrow and seek leave to file a motion to dismiss. As some of the arguments Defendant intends to raise concern jurisdictional issues, the Parties respectfully ask that the Court adjourn the initial conference sine die, or, alternatively, to a date at least fourteen (14) days after a determination on the motion to dismiss, in the event the Court grants Defendant leave to file the motion to dismiss. Should the Court wish the Parties to file a joint letter and proposed case management plan, we ask that the Court permit the Parties to file the same by tomorrow, February 13, 2020.

We greatly appreciate Your Honor's courtesies in this regard, and thank the Court for its time and attention to this matter.

Respectfully submitted,

/s/ Joseph A. Piesco, Jr.

Application granted. The initial pre-trial conference scheduled for February 18, 2020 and the deadline for submission of the parties' joint letter and proposed case management plan, described in the Court's October 25, 2019 order, Dkt. No. 5, are adjourned sine die.

SO ORDERED.
